

Groom Role

She said, “Yes”! Now it’s just the small matter of the WEDDING

All you have to do on the day is say “I Do” but if it were only that simple. If you think you can duck for cover away from the planning then think again.

Gone are the days when you simply stroll up to the ceremony in a suit you rented that morning. Even if you’re having a traditional wedding, the chances are you’ll be involved in everything from the choosing the music and what your guests eat on the day.

You might be lucky enough to avoid a trip to the florist and buying the gifts for the bridesmaid, however will have to stay alert when booking your honeymoon

