

Usher's Role

The usher duties.....

The usher is usually chosen by the groom and his best man however nowadays the decision is a joint one made by the couple. A good rule to follow would be to have one usher for every 50 guests.

Typically the usher would answer directly to the groom. Duties on the day are varied but relatively light which is basically helping out on the day should any situations arise where you can be of use. Something like helping to hand food and drink around or even help a guest whose in a wheelchair to their correct place in the ceremony.

You are sort of a butler in a sense, politely and calmly attending to guests needs making sure of the smooth running of the day. The best thing of all is that you get to escort the bridesmaids during the course of the day so watch out for your wondering hands.
